

INTERNATIONAL MINISTRIES AT PENN STATE

Day-Trip to Philadelphia Saturday, March 31, 2012

For this trip we will leave from the lobby of the Pasquerilla Spiritual Center (across Curtin Road from Pattee Library entrance) promptly at 7:30 AM (earlier pick-up off-campus is possible), arrive in Philadelphia at 11:30 AM, leave Philadelphia at 5:00 PM, and arrive back in State College at 9:30 PM. The transportation cost will be $40. In addition, you will pay your own admission fees, as listed below, for those activities you plan to visit, as well as buying or bringing food for lunch and dinner. (We will stop briefly at 9:30 am on the way there, and again stop briefly to eat supper at 7:00 pm on the way back. This will give you more time for sightseeing.)

During our time in Philadelphia, you will probably have time to visit 1 or 2 of the following places (your choice):

- (1) Philadelphia Museum of Art ($16; $12 for children and students with ID);
- (2) Franklin Institute Science Museum ($15.50; $12 for children);
- (3) Independence National Historical Park Visitor Center and sites, including the Liberty Bell, Congress Hall and Independence Hall (all free);
- (4) National Constitution Center ($12; $8 for children and students with ID)
- (5) Chinatown

I will provide transportation between the five sites, or you can walk from one to another or use city busses if you choose to do so. I will also provide a map of the downtown area for you.

To register, complete the trip registration form below and return it to me with your payment. This trip will be limited to the first 28 people who register by paying the $40 transportation cost. (Make checks payable to "Bill Saxton". If I am not in my office when you come, you can slide a check or envelope with cash under my office door and I will send you a receipt confirming I received it and that you are registered for the trip.) Hope you can come along!!
